

Blood is drink indeed. He that eateth My Flesh, and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent Me, and I live by the Father, so he that eateth Me, the same also shall live by Me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead. He that eateth this bread shall live for ever. — Creed.

Offertory (Leviticus 21 : 6)

THE PRIESTS of the Lord offer incense and loaves to God, and therefore they shall be holy to their God, and shall not defile His Name. Alleluia.

Epistle (I Corinthians 11 : 23–29)

FRATRES: Ego enim accépi a Dómino quod et trádidí vobis, quóniam Dóminus Jesus, in qua nocte tradebátur, accépit panem, et grátias agens fregit, et dixit: Accípíte et manducáte: hoc est corpus meum, quod pro vobis tradétur: hoc fácíte in meam commemoratiónem. Simíliter et cálicem, postquam cenávit, dicens: Hic calix novum testaméntum est in meo ságuine. Hoc fácíte, quotiescúmque bibétis, in meam commemoratiónem. Quotiescúmque enim manducábitis panem hunc et cálicem bibétis, mortem Domini annuntiabitis, donec veniat. Itaque quicumque manducáverit panem hunc, vel biberit cálicem Domini indigne, reus erit Corporis et Sanguinis Domini. Probet autem seípsum homo: et sic de pane illo edat, et de

BRETHREN, I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks, broke, and said: Take ye and eat, this is My Body, which shall be delivered for you; this do for the commemoration of Me. In like manner also the chalice, after He had supped, saying: This chalice is the new testament in My Blood; this do ye, as often as you shall drink, for the commemoration of Me. For as often as you shall eat this bread and drink the chalice, you shall show the death of the Lord until He come. Therefore whosoever shall eat this bread, or drink of the chalice of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the Body and of the Blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself; and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of the chalice. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh judgment to himself, not discerning the Body of the Lord.

Gradual (Psalm 144: 15–16)

THE EYES of all hope in Thee, O Lord, and Thou givest them meat in due season. Thou openest Thy hand, and fillest every living creature with blessing. Alleluia, alleluia. (John 6. 56-57.) My Flesh is meat indeed and My Blood is drink indeed: he that eateth My Flesh and drinketh My Blood, abideth in Me, and I in Him. Alleluia.

PRAISE THY SAVIOR, O Sion! praise thy guide and Shepherd, in hymns and canticles. * As much as thou hast power, so also dare; for He is above all praise, nor canst thou praise Him enough. * This day there is given to us a special theme of praise—the living and life-giving Bread. * Which, as our faith assures us, was given to the twelve brethren, as they sat at the table of the holy Supper. * Let our praise be full, let it be sweet: let our soul's jubilee be joyous, let it be beautiful; * For we are celebrating that great day, whereon is commemorated the first institution of this Table. * In this Table of the new King, the new Pasch of the new Law puts an end to the old Passover. * Newness puts the old to flight, and so does truth the shadow; the light drives night away. * What Christ did at that Supper, that He said was to be done in remembrance of Him. * Taught by His sacred institutions, we consecrate the bread and wine into the Victim of salvation. * This is the dogma given to Christians—that bread passes into Flesh, and wine into Blood.

What thou understandest not, what thou seest not, that let a generous faith confirm thee in, beyond nature's course. * Under the different species, which are signs not things, there lie hidden things of infinite worth. * The Flesh is food, the Blood is drink; yet Christ is whole under each species. * He is not cut by the receiver, nor broken, nor divided; He is taken whole. * He is received by one, He is received by a thousand; the one receives as much as all; nor is He consumed, Who is received. * The good receive, the bad receive, but with the difference of life or death. * 'Tis death to the bad, 'tis life to the good: lo! how unlike is the effect of the one like receiving. * And when the Sacrament is broken, waver not! but remember, that there is as much under each fragment, as is hid under the whole. * Of the substance that is there, there is no division; it is but the sign that is broken; and He Who is the signified, is not thereby diminished, either as to state or stature. * Behold! the Bread of angels is made the food of wayfarers; verily it is the Bread of the children, not to be cast to dogs. * It is foreshown in figures: when Isaac is to be slain, when the Paschal Lamb is prescribed, when Manna is given to our fathers. * O good Shepherd! true Bread! Jesus! have mercy upon us: feed us, defend us: give us to see good things in the land of the living. * O Thou, who knowest and canst do all things, who feedest us mortals here below, make us to be Thy companions in the banquet yonder above, and thy joint-heirs, and fellow-citizens with the saints!

AMEN. ALLELUIA.
